Welcome to the 2011 Wales Rally GB.

Even the quickest glance at the route for this year's Wales Rally GB reveals a very different event to the previous 11 that have been run entirely in Wales.

With the relaxation of the rules which have previously dictated the format of World Rally Championship rounds, our organising team have welcomed the opportunity to plan an interesting north-to-south event and re-introduce classic special stages which have lain dormant for many years.

By coincidence it was the 1961 RAC Rally that first used the Dyfi forest as part of its competitive route, heralding a new era as the 'Rally of the Tests' evolved into the 'Rally of the Forests'. Along with the Great Orme, Clocaenog and Dyfnant, Dyfi returns this year to provide a refreshing new look and format which we are confident will appeal to both competitors and spectators alike.

The Royal Welsh Agricultural Society Showground in Builth Wells - the hub of this year's rally - opens its gates on Wednesday 9th for both manufacturer and private teams to finalise their service arrangements and to the public for the Shakedown stage.

The North Wales resorts of Conwy and Llandudno will be the setting for the Start, Opening Ceremony, Remote Service Area and the overnight Parc Fermé on Thursday 10th November.

The following day features eight forest stages in the mid-Wales Dyfi, Gartheiniog and Dyfnant forests, last used by this event in 1997, with central servicing in Builth Wells.

Stages in Hafren, Sweet Lamb and Myherin, which ran on Friday in recent years, move to Saturday, but retain the configuration that has made them so popular with competitors.

Sunday's fourth and final day includes revised stages in Crychan, Halfway and Monument; the first two adding variety and spice with a mixture of asphalt and gravel surfaces.

Cardiff - our incredibly enthusiastic host City since 2000 - will be the location for Rally HQ in the Wales Millennium Centre from Monday 7th and for the Ceremonial Finish on Sunday 13th.

There will be a repeat of the National status rally which was introduced last year, with additional spaces to accommodate amateur drivers in both modern and historic rally cars. Based entirely in Builth Wells the event will run once over each of the special stages on Friday and Saturday.

This year will be the 67th edition of our event and the 39th consecutive year as a qualifying round of the FIA World Rally Championship.

It gives all the organising team great pleasure to welcome drivers, teams and spectators to our event, the traditional and final round of the FIA World Rally Championship and the FIA Production Car World Rally Championships, and everyone involved in the WRC Academy whose finale is also here in Wales.

On behalf of Wales Rally GB organisers, International Motor Sports and the Motor Sports Association, I take this opportunity of expressing our thanks to the Welsh Government, all the officials, volunteer marshals, the host City of Cardiff, the resorts of Conwy and Llandudno, the Royal Welsh Agricultural Society and the town of Builth Wells, all the local authorities along the route, and the organisations and individuals without whom this event would not run.

To everyone involved in Wales Rally GB, I send my best wishes for an enjoyable and safe event.

Alan J Gow

Chairman, Motor Sports Association
